Year end reflections and plans for 2025...

Towards the end of 2024, at our Fall Marriage Mosaic “Tip-Off” marriage retreat at Cedar Springs Christian Retreat Center, something miraculously beautiful emerged from the weekend. We are overwhelmed by the “wonder of His love” and the healing that is being experienced in marriage. Read the sharing from Merritt and Amanda Scott below.

We both think of you very often. The marriage retreat was such a gift from God, and it has completely changed our relationship. We like to say we were dating for the last 30 years, and now we are newlyweds. We recently bought the How We Love book, and are starting to go through it together. Hope you had a wonderful holiday and you and your family are well!

Our plan, and we believe His plan for us in 2025, is to continue to offer retreats for couples at particular places that offer settings of rest for restoration and healing in marriage. Cedar Springs near Sumas is such a place. We also desire to keep the cost for a weekend retreat affordable and have settled in on, $365 per couple (couples investing a dollar a day for a year), in regards to a Marriage Mosaic weekend retreat.

In order for us to continue to offer affordable retreats, we need your help. $365 dollars doesn't come close to covering lodging and meals for a quality retreat like the ones we facilitate at Cedar Springs. In fact when Merritt and Amanda found this event on Facebook, and saw the low cost, they thought the retreat offer was a scam.

We need to raise $5,000 to offset the costs of our 2025 retreats. We can't thank you enough in advance for prayerfully considering a gift for the sake of marriages and the ministry God placed on our hearts 25 years ago.

Amanda and Merritt's story exemplifies the why behind doing what we do in the context of retreats. They were on the ropes, ready to be counted out by the enemy. God had other plans to restore their marriage and we got to be a small part of the new story He is writing for the two of them.
